Career Guidance Cell

The Career Guidance Cell at our institute has been actively functioning for over three years, providing effective support to students in exploring employment opportunities and diverse career paths. The cell assists students in career planning through counselling, helping them to identify their interests, aptitudes, and abilities so that they can make well-informed career choices.

To achieve this, the institute has developed the necessary infrastructure, appointed experienced faculty, and designed programs aimed at enhancing communication and soft skills—key attributes for improving employability.

The cell also takes proactive steps to identify new career prospects for both undergraduate and postgraduate students by engaging with emerging companies and industries. Annual campus recruitment drives are a major highlight, beginning with a pre-placement talk where organizations provide insights into their company profile, job roles, career growth opportunities,
